DR. McCAMMAN’S CORNER

Last week our Elementary Student Council organized and ran our Red Ribbon Week. Each day we had a saying regarding the commitment to staying drug free and many of the students and staff dressed in theme related costumes. Additionally, the classrooms had a door decorating contest where as a class they selected a theme regarding remaining drug free. We had great participation and the students did a fantastic job dressing up and being a part of Spirit Week. Please join us at home to enforce the concept of making good choices in life and remaining drug free. It is a powerful message, which I fear is sometimes lost in the celebration!

At this time of year, students come in the morning all bundled up and then shed throughout the day. Our Lost and Found ends up quite full from the forgotten sweaters and jackets that are taken off as the day heats up. Please have your child check Lost and Found often for items left behind.
