

EDUPRIZE Grade 5 Academic Extensions during School Closure - March 24-27

	Monday 3/23	Tuesday 3/24	Wednesday 3/25	Thursday 3/26	Friday 3/27
Math		DreamBox 15 minutes Student access If needed, check with the teacher for username and password.	DreamBox 15 minutes Student access If needed, check with the teacher for username and password.	DreamBox 15 minutes Student access If needed, check with the teacher for username and password.	DreamBox 15 minutes Student access If needed, check with the teacher for username and password.
Reading		Select a book of your choice and read for 20 minutes. Alternate: Read to a younger sibling.	Select a book of your choice and read for 20 minutes. Alternate: Read to a younger sibling.	Select a book of your choice and read for 20 minutes. Alternate: Read to a younger sibling.	Select a book of your choice and read for 20 minutes. Alternate: Read to a younger sibling.
Writing		Summarize an online informational article about a topic of your choice.	Write an essay for or against the school closure. Provide at least three reasons for your opinion. The essay should include an opening paragraph with a thesis statement, three paragraphs explaining your reasons, and a concluding paragraph.	Read the letter at this link . There are eight spelling/grammar errors in the letter. Find the errors and explain to an adult or older sibling how you would correct the mistakes.	Write a letter to an older relative. Tell them how the week of home-learning went for you. Address the envelope and ask an adult to mail it for you.
Social Studies/Science		Review the list of US Presidents from our first President until the current day. Select a President that you haven't heard about and research to find	Review the list of US Presidents again. Look at the names of the Presidents who held office 1825 - 1845. Select a President that you	Review the list of US Presidents . Out of the first 10 Presidents, which ones had you already heard about? Tell an adult three things each one of	Based on your research earlier this week, select your favorite President in the era 1789-1845. Write a paragraph about that President.

		out more about him. Tell an adult three things you learned about the President that you selected.	haven't heard about and research to find out more about him. Tell an adult three things you learned about the President that you selected.	those Presidents.	Include the years of his presidency and at least three important facts about that President. Explain why you chose to write about him.
Physical Health		View Go With the Flow video (1 min.). Go for a calming walk (with parent supervision/permission) to take some time to enjoy nature and appreciate the quiet time.	Outdoor possibilities (with adult supervision): Ball games, tag, races with siblings, bike rides, etc. Indoor possibilities: Jumping jacks, jogging in place, dancing to your favorite music	View Peanut Butter in a Cup to get yourself pumped up! Play with your siblings or parents.	Outdoor possibilities (with adult supervision): Ball games, tag, races with siblings, bike rides, etc. Indoor possibilities: Jumping jacks, jogging in place, dancing to your favorite music
Extra Activities		Follow the guidelines at Nerding to make a paper airplane. Record how far it flies (three flights). Then test the various adjustments recommended in the video and record how far the plane flies.	Watch this short video about bullying. Think about how you can make an impact to reduce bullying at your school or neighborhood. Make your public service announcement to help inform other about bullying.	Participate in an hour of code by trying out The New Dance Party.	Learn more about the Coronavirus by watching this video from BrainPop. Talk to an adult in your home about what you learned. How does learning more about the Coronavirus make it less scary?