

EAGLES EDITION

Principal's Message

Robin Yeargain

Dear EDUPRIZE Parents,

It's hard to believe this year is coming to an end! As we finish up these last 14 days, we will stay close to our routines, as there are still academics to be learned. Keeping routines is important as it helps give a sense of security and provides confidence. With the year ending, some children start to feel the stress and pressure of change, and maintaining structured routines, whether big or small, makes a huge impact. You will see that we will keep our academic focus for the next two weeks and the final week of school will begin the wrap up of the year.

Don't forget that next week is packed with Water Days, Wax Museum for 5th grade, Teacher/Staff Appreciation and the Volunteer Celebration.

Have a wonderful weekend!

Kindly,

Robin

SEL CORNER

(SOCIAL AND EMOTIONAL LEARNING)

Dear EDUPRIZE families,

In part three of our self-control series, I wanted to share this short (under 5 minute) video from a pediatric occupational therapist that explains the science of impulse control and some fun games you can play with kids to practice impulse control. Since kids learn best through play, try some of these games that are both fun and helpful for impulse control practice!
